Dear Parents/Carers

We are writing to share the draft copy of the new Norwood School Policy for Home Learning. The document outlines the importance of and our approach to home learning, as well as detailing expectations and ways to support children.

We recognise the vital role you as Parents/Carers have in supporting your child's home learning, and therefore value your input into this document. We would welcome any suggestions or comments you may have about the policy, and request that you submit them in writing in the suggestions post box, which has been placed in the alcove between the two sets of doors in the front entrance of school.

Thank you in advance.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. D Reynolds
Head Teacher.
